

WITH JOCKEYS AND FAST HORSES

What They Are Doing at the Kapiolani Track.

GOOD PROSPECTS FOR JUNE RACES

Trainers and Jockeys Hard at Work.
Paul Isenberg's filly will be Ostracized—Bob Isom's Bobs Up Sincerely.
What of Billy C and Lord Brock?

The 11th of June is only a very few days hence, but to the sporting fraternity it seems years to that date. The horses at the race track have been in training for some time, and now the trainers and jockeys are beginning to assume a very reticent attitude. If you ask one of them why such and such a thing is done at such and such a time he will probably tell you to mind your own business in language stronger than those words indicate. The horses are being watched as carefully as children in the cradle, and every indication means this or that to the anxious trainers and jockeys.

Prominent among the trainers and jockeys is Cal Leonard, a jockey of renown in the country, who has charge of the following of Col. Spalding's horses, now at the track:

Duke of Norfolk, out of Rosita by Kealia. Foaled June 3, 1888. Amethyst, out of Amandine by Kealia. Foaled June 4, 1890. Amaranth, out of Amandine by Kealia. Foaled June 1, 1891. Defender, out of Amandine by Kealia. Foaled May 4, 1893. Ballota, out of Ballota by Kealia. Foaled May 15, 1889.

Charles David, who has been spending the last month or so traveling back and forth between Lahaina and this port on business, says he is coming down next week to stay until after the races and to see what he can do with the following horses:

Billy Button, whose pedigree is so well known and who is still owned by J. F. Humbert. Lottie L., the property of John Holt.

Samuel G. Wilder's Alvina, by Eros out of Nettie Nutwood. Paul Isenberg's sorrel filly, by Maria, out of a mare Alexander.

In regard to this last horse there seems to be much doubt as to her being entered in any of the races. She made a good record on the track the other day and all the horse owners have taken the matter to heart, declaring in favor of ostracizing Mr. Isenberg's filly. The only thing left for her to do will be to run loose in the pasture and wait for a more favorable turn. Her ambition in making the fast time spoken of was an unfortunate break.

Walter Bagby has charge of Gus Schumann's Judah and Billy Norton's Black Ralph. The latter animal was sired by Black Ralph and is an importation from San Francisco. He has never been on the track in this country before, and is thought by some to be in the nature of a very "black horse."

It is thought that Halstead's horses will be up from the country in time to make a showing on the 11th of June.

Tom Hollinger will probably not lose the opportunity of entering Margaret H. in the lists, nor is it likely that he will forget little Gerster. Margaret H. is out of Daisy by Boswell, Jr., and Gerster is out of a black mare by Washington.

Now as to Billy C. and Lord Brock and Antidote, all three of which were put up at auction yesterday. Of course no one knows what will be done with the first two, but then, a Chinese puzzle can sometimes be solved.

There arrived in the city by the last Australia a little colored man who, when in training, weighs but ninety pounds. It is said by the sports that ninety pounds is all he weighs now. Then he must be in training. If that is the case it must be for Billy C. and Lord Brock, for there is nothing else in sight when all the transactions regarding the importation of the jockey into the country are taken into consideration.

Bob Isom, the jockey referred to, is celebrated all over the United States as being a crack rider. He was ruled off the track in the great California races of a short time ago, but has since been reinstated on account of insufficient proof against him as being one of the jockeys who "pulled" certain horses. Bob is staying at Sans Souci with his valet and will probably turn up smiling on the 11th of June, if not before.

ENTERTAINMENT AT LIHUE.

Very Neat Sum Netted for School Funds.

LIHUE (Kauai), May 28.—One of the events of the rural holiday season was the Malumalu annual concert, which took place this year on the evening of the 23d of May.

The entertainment consisted of three parts—part first, musical, in which most of the best musical talent of Kauai took part with marked acceptance to the crowded audience; part second, intermission with refreshments under the trees in the yard, of which also the audience highly approved; part third, the story of "Mary, Queen of Scots," beautifully illustrated by stereopticon views and living pictures, with the accessories of luxurious stage fittings, etc. The queen and her maids and the lords of Scotland all in appropriate costume were much admired. The presentation was considered a great success. It was under the charge of Mr. J. M. Lydgate, the newly located minister at Lihue.
